Greetings from the Mayor

The capital of the Hungarian nation continues to be one of the top destinations for international tourism; the fact that Budapest received the prize as Europe's best destination in 2019 (awarded on the basis of the votes of several tens of thousands of travellers from all over the world) was exceptional recognition for the city. In the view of the tourism organization European Best Destination (EBD), this achievement is the fruit of the past decade's work, during which time Budapest has become one of the most attractive cities in Europe offering a high standard of living. This is the reason it attracts investors, businesses and travellers from every part of the globe.

The Hungarian government and the leadership of the city are committed to making Budapest a liveable, likeable and healthily developing metropolis. Furthermore, the capital of the Hungarian nation needs to make advances in promoting business tourism, an area that can be a take-off point for the city.

Domestic conference tourism has witnessed significant growth: in 2018, nearly 500 conferences were organized in Hungary, an increase of 13% on the previous year. Budapest remains the venue of choice in Hungary for most internationally-organized conferences: close on 80% of conferences were arranged in the capital.

The leadership of Budapest continues to do everything it can to increase the city's competitive advantage in the area of conference tourism, too, and to develop the still untapped domestic market using all the tools at its disposal.

István Tarlós
Mayor of Budapest

Dear Readers,

A modern and retro metropolis endowed with a touch of exoticism, stunning bridges and jovial people – that's Budapest. The capital of Hungary – with the river Danube flowing through its heart, gorgeous buildings on both banks – is a grandiose and unique event venue.

Holiday tourists and city tourists sensitive to the highly developed cultural scene and gourmet gastronomy are all astonished by the fabulous beauty of Budapest. Many of them return as business tourists. Those who first experience the magic during a conference will also take their families with them the next time.

Budapest's official organization for tourism and culture, the BFTK Budapest Festival and Tourism Centre, now provides a professional catalogue and incentive programmes for organizers of future conferences, which includes all the significant meeting spots, hotels, special locations, Hungarian organizers as well as travel companies. I recommend to guests of conferences the several festivals and fairs organized by BFTK, since they provide great relaxation for visitors in every season; these events include the Budapest Spring Festival, Spring Fair, Summer Festival, CAFe Budapest Contemporary Arts Festival, and the Budapest Advent and Christmas Fair.

I highly recommend the Budapest Card to our MICE guests; the card enables the holder to use reliable, selected tourism services free of charge or at a reduced price.

We would love to welcome you to our capital.

Dear Reader,

In the centre of our publication, between pages 14–55, we present Budapest's MICE services in four chapters.

The first part (4-5-STAR CONFERENCE HOTELS) lists those Budapest hotels that have a conference hall with a capacity of minimum 150 people and a 4-5-star HotelStars categorization, or that offer a standard of service in line with these categories.

The second section (CONFERENCE AND EVENT VENUES) details conference and event venues with a plenary hall capable of hosting at least 150 people, which – as regards their core function – can be hired for conferences and other events.

In the third, UNIQUE VENUES chapter, those special venues are presented whose principal function differs from the reception of conferences and major events (for example, concert halls, museums, spas, restaurants etc.). With just a few exceptions, these are not primarily conference venues, even if the size of some would make them suitable for this purpose, but which are excellent locations for events accompanying conferences, cultural evenings and receptions.

The fourth chapter of the catalogue (ORGANIZERS, PCOs AND DMCs) covers the wide range of programme organizers and destination management companies in Hungary. DMCs marked with the letter 'Q' are registered by the Hungarian Convention Bureau as qualified service providers.

We trust that our publication – which in addition to the chapters mentioned above also includes much more useful information – proves to be your handy guide in the Hungarian capital!

office@urbanbetyar.com | www.urbanbetyar.com

Welcome to the Urban Betyár Restaurant & Ethnographic Visitor Center!

We would proudly like to present our restaurant – the mission of which is to shed some light on the colourful Hungarian culture – with its wide variety of Hungarian dishes, breathtaking interiors as well as a 19th century Ethnographic Museum that is located just below the restaurant.

Our á la carte restaurant area, with capacity to seat up to 90 guests, has a truly unique design. Every item has a story to tell about the notorious 'Betyárs' (highwaymen) or Hungarian traditions, which becomes even more entertaining with our open view kitchen, where we revive the famous tradition of campfire cooking and smoking.

The restaurant itself has several event rooms. Our 'Conference Hall' with a capacity of 96 people is equipped with the latest audio technology and projector systems (Barco-ClickShare). The 'Mirror Room' can accommodate 44 people. If required, these two rooms can also be connected and used for up to 140 people. For an even more prestigious experience, we offer a VIP room where up to 20 people can be seated in an exclusive environment. Our new 'Trabant '60 Retro Lounge' offers you the most unique design and experience of the retro era. This area is suitable for up to 50 people.

TOP 12 COOL THINGS TO DO IN BUDAPEST

In early 2019, the Hungarian capital city Budapest was voted this year's 'European Best Destination'. Our prize-winner city successfully mixes its fascinating history with a brilliant contemporary artistic style, charm to fall in love with and a gentle way of life – for both visitors and locals. City breakers who are sensitive to high-class cultural settings and delightful gastronomy, are all astonished by the fabulous beauty of this destination. So, why should you visit Budapest? Let us show you some great reasons!

1 GET LOST IN THE CITY OF LIVING HISTORY

Budapest has a very special atmosphere because of the ambiance of various historical periods. There is so much to see in District V – just around every corner there's a beautiful building or historic site. The newly renovated Parliament House on the Danube bank has 691 rooms, with a 96-meter-tall dome on the top. The Hungarian coronation symbols are on display here. Closer to Deák Square lies St. Stephen's Basilica – the largest Christian church in Budapest with a majestic dome and a lookout tower providing a 360-degree panoramic view. Just a few steps away is Andrásy Avenue, one of Europe's most magnificent promenades, home to the famous Opera House. The nearby Liszt Academy of Music is one of the world's finest academies of performing arts that you can visit in pre-arranged guided tours for individuals. If you are pleasantly exhausted, do not hesitate to take a journey on the quaint Millennium Underground Railway (M1), which is Continental Europe's oldest metro line. At the Underground Railway Museum in the underpass of Deák Ferenc Square, you are taken back over a century in time – walking between historic electric subway cars. Budapestinfo Tourist Information and Budapest Card Center at Deák Square (H-1052 Budapest, Sütő u. 2.)

2 HAVE A DIP IN BUDAPEST'S THERMAL BATHS

Budapest is the city where the uplifting cultural experience is superbly combined with the blissful indulgence of spas. The city is known for its historical thermal baths and 123 natural hot springs. Each medicinal bath has its own unique qualities in terms of architecture, number of pools, amenities and crowds. Visitors mainly flock to Széchenyi, Gellért, Lukács and Rudas – the ones with the most impressive settings. Most baths are open all year round, incl. authentic Ottoman Turkish-style baths as Rudas, Király and Veli Bej. With the Budapest Card, you can enjoy free admittance to the Lukács Thermal Bath and Swimming Pool.

3 ADMIRE THE DANUBE, ITS BRIDGES AND LIGHTS BY BOAT

Taking a boat ride is a great way to enjoy the beautiful panorama of Budapest by day and night. Daytime cruises often stop-off on Margaret Island, which is a perfect space to enjoy a picnic and escape from the hustle and bustle of city life. The evening cruise programmes reveal the magical illuminated Budapest. You can enjoy breathtaking sunsets with candlelit dinners served on the deck of Danube sightseeing boats. Duna Bella Sightseeing Cruise by Legenda Cruises – free with Budapest Card Plus.

4 VISIT A MUSEUM

Budapest has a whole range of excellent museums and exhibitions, so it's worth adding some to your bucket list. In Budapest, geniuses have their own collection or a memorial house like Béla Bartók, Ferenc Liszt or Victor Vasarely. The permanent exhibitions of the Hungarian National Gallery, the Museum of Fine Arts at Heroes' Square, the Budapest History Museum just as the Hospital in the Rock beneath the Buda Castle, or the Goldberger Textile Industry Collection are equally interesting to visit anytime. The 21st century genres of art are hosted by Ludwig Museum, Műcsarnok (Kunsthalle) and Robert Capa Contemporary Photography Centre. With the Budapest Card, you can discover almost 20 attractive museums free of charge!

5 GET A TASTE OF BUDAPEST

In recent years, a number of Michelin-starred restaurants appeared in the city, including Onyx ⌘, Costes ⌘, Borkonyha ⌘, Costes Downtown ⌘, Stand ⌘ and Babel ⌘. The vibrant streets of the former Jewish Quarter offer a wide range of premium-category bistros and wine bars. Dropping into the Szamos Café, right next to the Parliament, an hour-long chocolate tour awaits those with a sweet tooth. Budapestinfo Point Tourist Information Partner at Szamos Café. Budapest is also the city of terraces and coffee houses. Sitting on the panoramic Danube Promenade, you can marvel at the brilliant view of the UNESCO World Heritage sites while enjoying a cup of coffee. Immerse yourself in authentic fin-de-siècle splendour at Budapest's literary coffee houses: New York Café – chosen as the most beautiful café in the world – distinctly recalls the grandeur of the early 20th century Budapest where cafés served as meeting-points for artistic life. It's worth taking a trip to Budafok where you can visit the Törley Exhibition and Visitors' Centre as the hub of Hungarian sparkling wine culture. Don't leave Budapest without trying a local favourite aperitif: sip some sour cherry Pálinka (special Hungarian fruit liquor) at the Pálinka Museum Shop Bar, which offer the best ones to sample.

6 FEEL THE SPIRITUAL EPICENTERS

Budapest is a mild and peaceful meeting point of religions. Europe's largest synagogue, with a seating capacity for 3,000 people, stands witness to the troubled times of the Holocaust – today it is a venue for uplifting concerts and art events. The Jewish Quarter awaits guests with its characteristic flavours, desserts and street festivals. On the Buda side, on the Rózsadomb you find the world's northernmost Muslim pilgrimage site, Gül Baba's Tomb. Budapest's Inner-City Parish Church offers delightful organ concerts and a new-discovered crypt. Strolling in the Castle District, you can enjoy the best 360° Budapest panorama from the wonderfully restored bell tower of the medieval Church of Mary Magdalene. If you are longing for devout silence, don't miss the Cave Church on Gellért Hill.

7 ENJOY BUDAPEST WITH KIDS

Budapest offers several family bonding experiences and attractions. For a day of fun and scientific education, visit the 5,000 m² interactive playhouse of CSOPA (i.e. Palace of Wonders). Take your children on a caving adventure in one of Budapest's Caves and labyrinths. Strolling in the City Park, kiddies will be surely captivated by the spectacular performances at the Capital Circus. In the neighbourhood, Budapest Zoo is an excellent pastime for visitors whose kids love baby animals and 3D-movies. If you want to enjoy shark feeding at 'the temple of aquatic wildlife', pop into the Tropicarium. One of Europe's largest indoor water parks, the AQUAWORLD offers unforgettable entertainment for adrenaline-junkies of every age under a stunning dome area. If you are looking for an indoor amusement park equipped with ninja and parkour area for active youngsters, Superfly Extreme Trampoline Park would be a great choice.

8 GO BEHIND THE SCENES

Budapest has been an internationally preferred location by filmmakers for many years. With its charming streets and buildings reminiscent of various periods and ages, Budapest has proven to be the perfect filming location – whether it's a war movie or a film set in the socialist period. Budapest has 'played the role' of the magnificent Paris as well as Borgia-period Italy or Argentina of the 1940s. Finally, it actually portrayed itself in the Bollywood blockbuster 'Raabta', which hit the big screen in June 2017, first in India. Several iconic Budapest settings and major landmarks – including the Liberty Bridge and the Parliament– appear in this romantic drama directed by Dinesh Vijan. Let's set out in the footsteps of world-famous movies and stars in Budapest!

9 DISCOVER BUDAPEST, THE EUROPEAN CAPITAL OF SPORT

Budapest is proud to be The European Capital of Sport for 2019. The city has been awarded by ACES Europe, deservedly so: Budapest has become the host of bicycle, rowing and triathlon competitions, marathons and running events in the last few years. Maybe the most popular event is the Budapest Marathon Festival attracting tens of thousands of visitors to Budapest at the end of September. Moreover, here you can cheer for sportsmen, sportswomen and athletes in a number of Olympic qualifying competitions for Tokyo 2020 throughout the year. Many events will be hosted in Papp László Budapest Sports Arena or the newly-constructed Danube Arena that is the greatest aquatics centre of Hungary.

10 GET INSPIRED BY VISITING A FESTIVAL

Budapest's event calendar is crammed with festivals throughout the year. The three-week long Budapest Spring Festival kicks off the spring season each year. In the summer, head to the peaceful oasis of Margaret Island where you can enjoy performances of the biggest seasonal multi-genre music festival in Central Europe: the Budapest Summer Festival, located next to the historic Water Tower. Budapest is also the host of the best major festival in Europe, the SZIGET Festival. In the autumn, the CAFE Budapest Contemporary Arts Festival attracts a wide audience – from popular music and jazz to dance and visual arts as well. The Budapest Advent and Christmas Fair is famous for its enchanting musical, culinary and artisanal repertoire. The open-minded atmosphere of Budapest is reflected in its wide range of film festivals (Israeli, Korean, Italian, Czech, Francophone, LGBTQ) all year round.

11 GO SHOPPING IN STYLE

You find the main shopping areas in the city center. Designated as a pedestrian zone, Váci Street features a large number of fashionable shops, restaurants and cafés (like Molnár's). Neighbouring streets like Fashion Street on Deák Ferenc utca, also offer a great shopping experience. Radiating out from the city center, Andrassy Avenue has some of the most glamorous shops and upscale boutiques. For some inspirational gift ideas such as Paprika (a Hungarian savoury red spice) and Tokaji wine, check out the Central Market Hall at Fővám Square, which is the oldest, largest and most characteristic indoor market in Budapest.

12 EXPLORE BUDAPEST IN YOUR OWN WAY

There are many different ways of discovering Budapest! The fastest way to access the Castle District is to take a ride by Buda Castle Funicular from the Chain Bridge. The quaint streets of the castle can be traversed with eco-friendly minibuses. The Zugliget Chairlift offers the broadest panoramic views of the capital. By a three-wheeler TukTuk you can discover hidden corners of Budapest that nobody else can reach! The River Danube offers a wide range of sightseeing boats, while the continent's first amphibious bus "RiverRide" plunges into the Danube after a one-and-a-half-hour-long city tour. Get an insider's view on a KTM bike ride across Budapest with a live guide at BikeRelax: it's the best chance to take great pictures of the highlights, including UNESCO World Heritage sites.

STREET ART

The Beyond Budapest Street Art walk guides visitors to the city's biggest exhibition in Party District. Today, street art schemes are increasingly in the public eye and the city leaders are fully behind the initiative. People joining the tour lasting nearly two hours check out the Vasarely-inspired picture on Károly Boulevard and plenty of other places until Kürt Street, in the meantime visiting firewalls, gateways, road surfaces, lampposts and getting a glimpse into the hidden stories behind the downtown's street art works.

DRIVING ME UP THE WALL!

Gravity Boulder Bar climbing arena created by architects, professional wall climbers and wall designers, offers genuine active relaxation; the end result is a climbing area exceeding 500 sqm and several hundred routes, which up to 100 can tackle at the same time. The designers have also thought about beginners: there are easier sections and even a kids' wall, and no need to worry about falls because the super thick, layered mattresses protect against all injuries. If going it alone isn't your thing, you can join training sessions designed for different skill sets, and then at the end of a tough few hours, we suggest you relax in the bar, sauna or beanbag chillout zone.

ADVENTURE SPRITZER ON THE DANUBE!

Just when you thought you had seen Budapest from every angle, along comes Redjet and gives you a totally new dimension! Live the buzz of flat-out speed on board a 440-HP speedboat and find out what it is like being the fastest vessel on the Danube. The Ferrari-red speedboat departs from Kopaszi-gát and streaks across the water at 80 kph, flying up the Danube as far as Parliament and returning; then it's the moment for a few extreme manoeuvres. When the weather is a bit chilly it is advised to don protective gear, but in heatwaves the spray off the water is pleasantly refreshing. And you don't need to get together a 12-person party for the start: even one person can pay for a ride. Photos are taken of the screaming passengers. This is truly a ride of a lifetime!
